By Saturday, Charlie Worsham will have the absentee ballots for soldiers ife sure to get them AT ONCE.

Mr. Meyers, who is doing most of the work connected with the rotogravure section of the GCW to be issued sometime within the next 10 weeks, reports that he has received many compliments for space at the camp and that so far, he has not been refused cooperation.

This edition of the GCW, we hope, will be unique inthe annals of the weekly press of Mississippi.

At a ater date, local firms who wish to be represented, will be contacted.

As a member of the County Election Commission, it will be my duty to aid in examining the so-called beer petition, said to be in the making, and, therfore, I do not deem it seemingly at this stage of the game to have anything to say about it.

We understand that the Jones Company has received a major contract at the Grenada Air Base.

We have received a number of orders for personal stationery for boys in the service and suggest a bunch of that stationerys as an appropriate gift. 100 sheets and 100 envelopes, $2.00; 200 each $3.00.

The old lady has become quite an editorial writer. First thing I know, I can retire.

Ain't they sweet.

Our aged and honorable friend, J. C. Weeks, recently renewed his charter member subscription.

IT CAN HAPPEN HERE.

Folks in West Ward got a taste of black out Wednesday night.

It takes a good figger to wear slacks.

August—the damnest month in the year—is over, and we can see mighty good signs, by turning these pages, to see advertising picking up. We came dfion nigh starving to death in August.

Congratulations to the Street Department which has been removing a lot of unsightly grass and weeds.

Work of excavating the lot just east of the Masonic Temple, preparatory to building additional bus parking space, is progressing nicely.

It has been announced that the same officers who held the primary election on the 25th will hold the run-off election.

We are not kicking about it, for there is nothing much we can do about it, but, unless we receive (as we do receive to a limited extent) job printing on which we can make some money, we could not get out a newspaper of the character that we do get out. If I took the trouble to analyze our costs, which I have not and will not, I am sure that the GCW, as a newspaper, is operated at a loss.

A fool can change his mind. I expect after all, I will stick with Mike Conner, as I have stuck with him since 1923.

Norfleet Craig's boss - damned if I have not misplaced the paper with his name on it - honored this office with a call recently.

Sam Simmons, 1st Lt. in Uncle Sam's cavalry.

The GCW has lasted nearly five years longer that some of its friends (?) predicted it would last. It is still going strong, even if this is said modestly, and said with full appreciation of the many people who have supported it.

Those, if there are any, who fail to read Allen's articles which appear nearly every week on the editorial page, are missing some of the most profound articles being written about the war.

With 50,000 soldiers in our midst, we of Grenada know not what we are facing. We are just going to have to do the best we can.

Soldiers in peacetime have lots of time to get into devilment, but when in wartime they have to work and drill about twelve hours a day, they want to sleep at night.

Send that boy some personal stationery, printed right here in our shop. 100 printed letterheads and 100 printed envelopes, $2.00; 200 of each, $3.00.

All of us members of the Ferdinand Club miss C. V. McKell, now an officer in the U. S. Navy.

Four Rejections Ont Of Thirty-Eight

Thirty-eight of our young white men were sent to the induction center at Camp Shelby Monday of this week. Of the 38, 34 were received into the armed forces.

All returned to Grenada Tuesday. The thirty-four who were accepted, after their customary two weeks of vacation, will return on or about the 15th to become integral parts of Uncle Sam's growing armed force.

The names of those accepted will be published later.

Receives His Captaincy

J. H. Biddy, Jr., who recently stopped over in Grenada to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Biddy, Sr., while enroute from the Louisiana maneuvers, was recently promoted from First Lt. to Captain in the Ordnance Department, U. S. Army.

CAPT. J. H. BIDDY, JR.

He is now stationed in Washington, but lives across the river in Alexandria, Virginia.

Congratulations, Mr. Captain.

Notes Taken At The Camp

Here's an interesting fact: Among the United States Engineer employees, there has been a marked increase in cooperation in the purchase of war securities. Four weeks ago, 78 percent of the employees pledged 8.5 percent of income; this week over 90 percent of the employees have pledged about 10 percent of their income.

Official authorization of the $5,000,000.00 air base north of Grenada has come from the War Department.

Most rapid progress that I noted was on the recreation buildings, chapels and theatres. The exteriors of these buildings are practically finished.

Mr. Meyers, who is aiding in putting on a rotorgravure section of the GCW and I have received 100 percent cooperation from all officials and all contractors so far contacted.

Smith and Pew, who are doing a splendid job with the disposal plant and the sewer lines, have been awarded another contract, a large one at a government installation at Gadsden, Ala.

Mr. A. Villaine, general superintendent of the Southern Tree Expert Company with headquarters in Pensacola, is making an emergency airplane trip to his home in New Hampshire on account of a death in his immediate family.

Colonel I. E. Ryder, Post Commander of Camp McCain, has temporary offices in the Glenwild Administration Building, but will soon move to more permanent quarters at Post Headquarters, now apidly approaching completion. He authorized us to say that he is heartily in favor of the proposed rotogravure section of the GCW and that he will cooperate to the extent of his authority. He is a very fine fellow and knows the army game from A to Izzard.

Our genial and gracious friend, Major Wade, was so busy that a friendly smile and a wave of the hand encompassed our relations on a recent visit.

Brother Pew has returned from Atlanta apparently without any ill effects of his stay in the metropolis of the South.

Things are moving mighty fast there.

They have a lot of pretty gals working in the offices out there, not that I notice such matters.

Mr. Thomas of Smith and Pew seems to be busy all of the time. He is one of the main cog wheels in the machine which runs so noiselessly.

It looks like our rotogravure supplement dedicated to the camp, will be a big success.

Wonder if they have any printing done at the camp?

McCarley's Steam Laundry And Cleaners Opened

The latest addition to Grenada's growing roll of industries is the McCarley Steam Laundry and Cleaners, located in the Waterman Building at the corner of Green and Second streets in Grenada. This laundry started operation this (Thursday) morning.

The owner and manager is Mr. Harry McCarley, formerly of West Memphis, Akansas, and an experienced man in this line of business.

Among the many services to be rendered are laundry work, repairing, alterations, cleaning and pressing. A first class sewing department, staffed by experienced operators, is an important part of this business.

A casual inspection of the new industry disclosed that nearly all of the equipment is modern and new.

Miss Hazel Turner will look after the office. There are 10 other employees.

Thus Grenada Grows.

Junior Senator Wall Doxey Spoke Here Tuesday

Junior United States Senator Wall Doxey, who rodled his opponent, Jim Eastland, by nearly 12,000 votes, addressed a crowd, the size of which was not given, the quite complimentary to the speaker, coming as it did at 2:30 on the hot Tuesday afternoon of this week, in the public square here.

Admitting that he had made mistakes and saying that one who had not made mistakes was merely a visitor here from Heaven, he explained his efforts for 12 years to serve the people of his District; he spoke of the choice committee appointments he had received during his brief tenure in the Senate; he explained his position on the so-called pension bill; he gave his respects to his opponent; he entered rather lightly on the Yalobusha Dam proposition; he promised that, if elected he would give the best he had in him to Mississippi people and, if defeated, that he could "take it."

He received courteous attention from the people, as he always does. Following as he is a very hard itinerary, he could not remain here but a few minutes after his speech but, during that brief time, received cordial greetings from many people who had listened to his speech.

Opening Meeting to Honor Teachers

The Parent Teachers Association will hold an open meeting at the Community House Thursday night, September 10, at 8 o'clock. All parents are invited to come and eet the new teachers.

The ladies will serve light refreshments during the social hour following the informal reception for the teachers.

Mrs. C. C. Richardson, president of P. T. A. will be assisted in receiving by many of the officers and members.

Former Grenada Boy Gets Commission

News has reached Grenada that W. J. (Jack) Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Campbell, formerly of Tie Plant and Grenada, has received a commission as First Lieutenant in the Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army. He has been an engineer with the Illinois Department of Highways. He has been assigned to the 363rd Engineers at Camp Claiborne, La.

County Rally Sunday Afternoon

Sunday afternoon, September 6th, at 3 p. m. at the First Baptist Church in Grenada, there will be a county-wide mass-meeting to discuss petitioning the Grenada County Board of Supervisors to call an election to vote on whether or not we shal continue to allow the sae of beer and wine in Grenada county. The meeting will be addressed by several prominent citizens, chief among whom will be District Attorney J. P. Coleman. Every eligible voter in the county will be appealed to to express himself in the election, if it is called. It is necessary to have at least twenty percent of the qualified voters of the county to sign a petitioi before the board can call such an election.

Promoted

ALL OUT FOR VICTORY EDITION OF THE GCW CONTINUES TO MEET WITH FINE SUPPORT

This week has been spent largely at Camp McCain contacting the various United States governmental authorities and construction concerns. In each instance every one there has assured us of their full moral or material support for the edition has met with such enthusiasm and cooperation, that we feel sure it will be the largest and most interesting edition in the history of North Mississippi. The construction folks have cooperated most liberally with many full pages in the attractive progressive sections, depicting their part in both word and picture of the "All Out for Victory" program, which is history in the making.

Hundreds of photographs will appear in the permanently bound rotogravure section. Compilation of material for the scores of local features which will appear in the edition will start within the next week or two. These features will include photographs of Grenada and the County, etc. along with the story in pictures of the commercial, industrial and agricultural interests.

The usefulness of such an edition is emphasized in view of the service it will render and fulfill in creating a stronger home front, a spirit of oneness among our people who are bending every effort onward a goal of our Nation's effort to win this war on every front, the battle line, the production line, the construction line.

Along with the conditions, we are making it necessary to have to continue to make sacrifices, and we will find it necessary to help eliminate the feeling that anyone gets anywhere or gets anything for nothing.

The shorter, harder way of life ahead of us for many years to come will mean everything if we start working for each other.

Col. I. E. Ryder, Post Commander of Camp McCain, stated he is to say that he was heartily in favor of the edition, we have in mind, and will, to the extent of its authority, cooperate with us with us to make the edition a credit to all concerned.

Mr. Meyers, who is aiding us in this edition will see the various enterprises with a view of securing their cooperation.

Mr. Chas. Rogers of Stourier Studios is handling the photographic end of the work.

Five Million Dollar Air Base Authorized Here

The War Department in Washington has officially announced authorization for construction of an Air Force installation in Grenada County, Miss., Col. S. D. Sturgis, Jr., U. S. District Engineer said today.

The project, which will cost approximately $5,000,000, will be built under supervision of the Vicksburg Engineer District. Major John C. Wade, who is Area Engineer at Camp McCain, will serve as Area Engineer for the new project, Colonel Sturgis said. Charles T. Main, Inc., of Boston is the architect-engineer firm. First construction bids were opened Aug. 20.

Hartman Receives Contract To Move CCC Buildings

A. Sid Hartman, of Brookhaven, Miss., has been awarded a contract for dismantling, transporting, reassembling and altering building in Montgomery and Grenada Counties, the U. S. Engineer Office of Vicksburg announced today. Amount of the contract is less than $20,000.

EDITOR'S NOTE: It is understood unofficially that these buildings will be reerected at Camp McCain and will be used to provide quarters for civilian employees at the camp.

Ellett Lawrence, like his famous father, has developed into a fine writer.

"AMERICANISM"

BEING A REPORT PREPARED BY W. B. NICOLS, OF GRENADA, ET AL FOR MISSISSIPPI BAR ASS'N AT BILOXI

In this report we digest the word "AMERICANISM" to the United States of America.

Physically the size of the Earth is approximately the same size as it has been for centuries, but relatively its size has been greatly reduced. Modern discoveries and inventions have brought about methods of communication and transportation so that no man liveth unto himself and no nation liveth unto itself.

The slogan of World War No. One was: "To make the world safe for democracy." The war was won, but the fruits of victory were lost, because democracy was impotent and incapable of measuring up to the responsibility of its opportunity. Consequent of said war and the inevitable depression thereafter the people of Europe and other Nations were in dire poverty and distress, and were ready and easy victims to any pseudo Moses who promised to lead them out of the wilderness. This was the opportunity for Hitler and other lesser totalitarian leaders to establish themselves. And while the Democracies of the World slept, Hitler and his ilk were building up the most gigantic war machine the world has ever known including not only mechanized implements of war on land, in air and on and under the sea, but also a generation of soldiers bred and rebred in an atmosphere of a philosophy of race superiority and that Might was RIGHT. And this was accompanied by an artful ingenious and false propaganda that reached the furtherest ends of the Earth, and even found lodging to some degree, in the United States of America.

We were at ease in Zion and mindless of the warning that eternal vigilance is the price of liberty.

In the meantime we were having troubles of our own. In these United States the financial, economic, industrial and agricultural machinery of our social order got out of gear. Accumulations of a life time were being lost. Homes were being lost. Many of our citizens were hungry and naked, and unemployed, financial institutions were being wrecked, gaunt famine, fear, distrust and insecurity stalked the land, and erstwhile true and tried, loyal patriots began to see red.

At this time Democracy awoke and placed in the White House that Man of Destiny, and he and his administration saved, for the time being, our land from a bloody revolutnin. A comparatively peaceful revolution did take place, and hope and courage were revived in the mind and hearts of men.

But the seeds of war had been sown. They germinated, grew and came into

Rumors, Hitler's Very Effective Tools

Rumors among the civilian population behind the lines have been most effective tools in Hitler's attempt to conquer the world. Sometimes the rumors were started and spread by enemy sympathizers, and at other times they were started by innocent gossipers who knew not what effect their waggling tongues would have.

We have rumormongers in Grenada. Within the last few days a rumor, springing from "nowhere" but spreading rapidly, was to the effect that white teachers would be used to teach the negro children in the colored schools of the City. Untrue and without any foundation, of course, but the rumor spread. Where the rumor originated nobody knows. Another rumor was that a negro had stabbed a white man. Untrue and without foundation, of course, but the rumor spread and, like all rumors, grew greater with each retelling.

Whether started by inocent persons, or by enemy agents, the effects of these and similar rumors are the same: to create discord, dissatisfaction and unrest between the white peoplee and the negroes, and these rumors are absolutely conductive to Hitler's policy of "Divide and Conquer."

Most people are very credulous. They accept what they hear as true, and do not pause to analyze the tale. While the rumor of a negro stabbing a white man COULD have been true, the matter of the negro children being taught by white teachers is, upon analysis, ridiculous to the intelligent negroes and the intelligent white folks.

Be on the lookout for idle rumors. Squelch them like you would an incendiary bomb.

Heterogeneous Observations

The government has three ways to raise money to prosecute the war, viz: borrow it, print it, or collect it as taxes. It is making every possible effort to borrow it and collect it in an equitable manner, but, if those two methods fail to produce enough money, the printing presses will start rolling and the coming of inflation, which will ruin all of us, will receive a great impetus. If you keep your money idle, and fail to invest it in war bonds, to that extent you force the government to print money. The more it prints, the less valuable your money will be. The further it goes, the worse it will get. Buy War Bonds.

The fotogravure supplement that we have in course of preparation will, we hope, be a credit to the community, to the camp contractors, to the engineers, and to the Grenada County Weekly. So far as we know, it will be the FIRST such edition published in Mississippi. Ten years after its publication, copies of it cannot be bought for a dollar a copy.

I am just about as far from being an economist as Bad Eye is from being a Justice on the Supreme Court, but even I have sense enough to know that ceiling prices, to be effective, must be placed on EVERYTHING; and that no exceptions should be made. Every exception is like a mole run in a radish patch, or crayfish hole in a levee.

* * * * *

Hitler's defeat will finally come from the same causes that promoted the defeat of Napoleon, Alexander the Great and other woud-be world conquerers. He will finally bite off more than he can swallow and digest.

* * * * *

Grenada County at the present time is in splendid shape, having reduced its bonded debt practically half a million dollars in the past eight or ten years. Due to the presence here of so many "foreign" cars on which tag taxes can be collected during October, it faces a pretty fair 1943. All of these "good" things should be considered along with bad prospects of the future. Forty thousand acres of land has been taken for the army camp. It will appear no more on the assessment rolls. Two thousand acres have been taken for the air base. Those acres will appear no more on the tax rolls. The finest body of land near Oxberry is being converted into an emergency landing field. That land will appear no more on the tax roll. The Yalobusha Dam built, will take from the tax rolls thousands of acres of land East of Grenada. The assessment rolls of Grenada county can well be considered as the "capital" from which income is derived. If the "capital" is reduced, one of two things must happen, viz: first, taxes MUST be increased on the remaining "capital," or, second, expenses MUST be reduced. A necessary addition to our expense was occasioned by the establishment of the County Health Unit, costing about $7,500.00 a year. Where are we to reduce expenses to help offset the expense of this unit. We suggest one place: that is the abolishment of the county agen's office which, in our opinion, is no longer necessary and which no longer served enough people to justify its continuance.

* * * * *

How foolish, how wasteful, how unproductive, how futile is war!! BOTH sides are losers in any protracted war such as this one is. The "loser" will be laying dead on the ground, while the "winner" will be gasping for breath. In the meantime, the flower of the youth of the entire word will lie in unmaiked graves, overflow the hospitals and insane asylums or return, disallusioned, to a desolate and devastated country. Roads, railroads, homes, factories, dams, and thousands of other installations designed for the betterment of mankind will have been destroyed. The clock of time will be set back at least 25 years. Widows, orphans and parents bereft of their sons will fill the entire world. Crepe will hang from almost every door. Why should the so-called leaders of the world be so blind that they cannot compromise their difference before BOTH sides are exhausted? Why, why, why?

* * * * *

"Heterogeneous" means, "opposite or dissimilar in character, quality, structure, etc."

How Do We Stand?

Let's check up. Conditions are better now in the Pacific, with the Marines on the Solomons and presumably inching up the thousand mile long chain of islands toward the goal—recapture of the East Indies and destruction of Japan. A long way to go, but a start has been made.

In India? Still a mess, and Japan will likely try to take advantage of the mess. Trouble ahead here.

In China? Japs not doing so well last couple of weeks, but we've no great reason to hope too much here, since China isn't getting the supplies of planes and other fighting equipment it must have. Patient waiting seems the only possible thing here for a considerable while.

On the Siberian border? Japs still poised to strike whenever the chance seems right for a blow in the back at their ancient enemy, Russia. But Russia is not asleep here, and the Japs may get a swift surprise. No action at the moment.

In North Africa. Checkmate for the moment. Rommel is stopped, but for how long? Meanwhile both the Axis and the Allied Nations hurry up reinforcements, waiting for the next move, both sides hoping to build up strength. The Allied line may hold, may even push the Nazis back, but it may not. Very uncertain.

On the European front? The Dieppe raid furnishes hope for the oppressed of Europe. More men from the United States, more planes, more of everything—and bigger raids, perhaps a second front before very long—has Germany plenty worried.

In Russia . . . there's the critical battle. Watch the Don river bend and Staingrad. The Russians are playing for time. Six weeks will again bring winter, even in these southern regions. If Hitler cannot break the Russian strength before winter, he never can. Russians have lost ground, but grudgingly, at terrific cost to Germany. Will lose more ground as Hitler throws every ounce into an attempt to wind this up and get support for the European front that threatens to harrass him soon.

What we need to win: Time . . . and it's short. Men . . . by the millions. Planes . . . more and more planes . . . the men and planes are coming, along with all the other war material, the tide toward the offensive is turning . . . but it's a long, hard, world-wide battle ahead.

No reason for discouragement. We can stand a long hard struggle better than Germany or Japan. He have shown we can take the offensive and come through. This is only the beginning for us . . . but it is the beginning of the end for our enemies.

Chins up. Courage high. Let's work as we never worked before—from here on out until our enemies wish they never had been born. We will do it. And we've started to do it. We'll follow through . . . all of us, pulling gether and fighting together.

Eastland Helped All

The people of the hill section of Mississippi have abandoned their old antipathy for the people of the Delta. Ordinarily a man from the Delta would have as little chance of carrying Calhoun county as a tallow-legged dog had of catching an asbestos cat in hell. But the people of the hills know on what side their bread is buttered on. They know that Jim Eastland - a native of the hills, but a plantation owner in the delta - helped ALL cotton raisers.

The hill people know that Mr. Doxey was on the Agricultural Committee of the House for many years, and they know that Mr. Doxey did less for them in his many years of service than Jim Eastland did in a mere 90 days. The hill farmers see no justice in being allowed so small a percent of their acreage in cotton, while the delta farmers have so great a percentage, yet they KNOW that Wall Doxey, who was on the Agricultural Committee, did exactly NOTHING about it, and they have hopes that the dynamic Jim Eastland will at least TRY to do something.

Comparing the war records of the two men does not lead us anywhere. Wall Doxey and I are about the same age. I went to the last war as a volunteer. Wall never did go. Jim Eastland has a wife and two children; he has registered; he has been classified; he can be called at any time that his draft board "gets to him". Men were needed just as badly in 1917-1918 as they are now.

Bilbo has indeed given Wall Doxey the "kiss of death" and, judging from the frequency of Bilbo's expectorations during his speeches, the kiss must have had some slobber on it.

Sneaky Business

Dependents of soldiers either are entitled to compensation or they are not entitled to compensation. Congrss said they WERE entitled to compensation BUT that the first compensation checks should be sent out early in November on a date that happened (?) to be just before the General Elections. An aroused public opinion forced the Congress to begin payments this month. That looks like sneaky business. It looks like playing politics with the soldiers, other men in service and their dependents.

The War Department is urging that young men of the 18-20 age group be made avaiable for military duty. All military men and most civilians know that young men in that age group make the best fighters. Nothing has been done about it yet, and it is generally believed that members of the Congress want to get the General Election behind them before these young men are utilized. Just as surely as the sun will rise tomorrow morning, these young men will be called AFTER the November elections. Politics, again. Sneaky business, again.

Good Advice From Major Shaw

For the information of the people of Grenada we publish an extract of a personal letter received by Herman Heath from Major (yes, he has been promoted. Hi, Major) Jimmie Shaw, as follows:

We are occupying a new camp which is near a town just a little larger than than Grenada. The people are working hard but are not getting anywhere. I would suggest that all civic organizations get together and pool their efforts. I think this would facilitate plans greatly. Every organization MUST BE included and required to do its part. You will also have many negro troops regardless of what you may be told. That is the big problem here as we have about 1500 negro soldiers and not a colored person within 100 miles.

I am for Long Staple Jim.

Aint they sweet.

Me and the USA.

Save The Doctors

Grenada has the same number of physicians that it had during normal times. Grenada will have no more doctors, and may have less doctors. In the meantime, due to the influx of people connected with camp construction, the population of Grenada and the area immediately about Grenada has almost doubled.

This is the time of "rationing" of essential commodities. The talent and time of the doctors certainly are very essential "commodities." Their talent and time should be conserved.

Just because you have plenty of money to pay the doctor is no good reason, during this time of stress, to call him when a couple of CCC pills, or an aspirin tablet would suffice.

The time of the doctors is severely taxed during the daytime. They, like other human beings, MUST have rest at night. Therefore, before you make a call upon him to come at night to see the baby who has the belly-ache, try a little paregoric or some warm soda water. In emergency cases, doctors will (and have) worked without rest or sleep as long as is necessary. Doctors, as a class, are notoriously forgetful of self.

Save the doctors' time. It is precious.

What August 15th?

Soon after Dunkirk in 1940, Hitler proudly announced that he would eat dinner in London on August 15th, the implication being that he meant August 15th 1940.

August 15, 1940 has come and gone. August 15, 1941 has come and gone. August 15, 1942 has come and gone.

WHAT August 15th did Hitler mean?

It Can Happen Here

The court house shattered by bombs . . . the post office gutted by fire . . . Main Street filled with debris . . . the water tank destroyed . . . electric current stopped by the destruction of power lines and the blasting of the emergency generating station . . . women and children killed and maimed . . . girls raped by alien soldiers . . . railroad communications severed . . . bus lines confiscated . . . citizens held as "hostages" . . . men and women forced to labor for the enemy . . . no communication whatever from our boys still fighting . . . malnutrition disease and pestilence rampant . . . no medicine, little food, no hospital facilties for civilians . . . babies born, like The Master, in barns and stables . . .

Yes, it CAN happen HERE.

The Editor, A Sower Of Seed

The editor of a newspaper (which has an editorial policy), whether he edits a huge newspaper like the New York Times or a small weekly like the GCW, is a sower of seed.

Oftentimes he sows seed and they fail to sprout; he sows agin and there is no sprouting. But if he sows good seed and sows plenty of them, they finally sprout.

I have sown bad seed which never sprouted. I have sown good seen and I have seen many bateles of fiem sprout and grow into mature plants. I could enumerate a lot of my sprouted seed; but it is needless to do so.

Suffice to say, good seed, if sown properly, will produce a harvest in the fullness of time.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

MRS. EASTERLING HONORED

Mrs. George Grant entertained graciously on Friday morning last in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Pat Easterling, of Excelcior Springs, Mo., who is to visit here for a month.

The home was aglow with lovely summer flowers for this occasion.

Friends of the honoree came at 10:30 in the morning and delicious sandwiches, canapes, cookies and iced cola drink were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe G. Acee, of Sulligent, Ala., were the guests last week of Joe's mother, Mrs. J. L. Acee and sister, Miss Alma Acee.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe G. Acee, of Sulligent, Ala., and Mrs. J. L. Acee, Miss Alma Acee and Miss Mary Cornick visited relatives in Memphis Tuesday.

James Prose, second year medical student, has returned to Tulane after a two months' vacation spent here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Prose.

Mrs. Lacy Allison returned home last Friday night from Portsmouth, Va., where she visited her son, Lt. Lawrence Allison for two weeks. Mrs. Allison stated that the hotels, boarding houses, private homes and rooming houses are crowded at Portsmouth. Mrs. Allison gave us an impression of what problems Grenada will have in the near future concerning increased population.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jackson spent the past week end in Memphis.

Mrs. Duboise, of Paris, Tenn., has been at home attending to business affairs the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Craig were called to Memphis last week to attend the bedside of their aged grandmother, Mrs. Sledge, who had the misfortune to break her hip in a fall at her home in Como. She is in Campbell's Clinic.

Mrs. J. K. Avent and daughter, Louise, spent last Thursday in Memphis.

Miss Jesse Van Osdell, member of the faculty at Holmes Junior College, at Goodman, visited her parents here several days last week and has returned to her duties there. Her niece, Mrs. Billy Weisker, who is a student at H. J. C., accompanied her and visited her grandparents and mother, Mrs. Edith Guidry.

Misses Barbara Nell and Patsy Roberts have returned home from a three week's visit with relatives in Arlington, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Salter spent Friday last in Memphis.

FROM LAST WEEK

William Winter, son of Senator and Mrs. W. A. Winter, who has accompanied candidate for Senate, Hon. Jim Eastland on all of his speaking dates this summer, is in Chicago this week representing the University of Mississippi Chapter of Phi Delta Theata fraternity at a national meeting. William plans to return home next Sunday and resume his duties with Mr. Eastland on Monday.

Miss Martha Strahan and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Drennon, and son, Rodley, of Mississippi State College, visited in the home of their father, Mr. Strahan, the past week, leaving Monday afternoon for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Rayburn were guests of Mrs. McElwrath and Miss Alice Bridgers the past week.

"AMERICANISM"

of Peace; but that it cannot function efficiently in time of war, because power and authority are not concentrated in one of a few individuals. Our present administration has, to some extent, disproved this argument. It has, by its good neighbor policy, cemented the ties of friendship between all of the Americas, and today the Western Hemisphere is practically united in its determined desire and effort to successfully resist the common enemy.

This war will be won by the Allies; but at an appalling sacrifice not only of property, but of sweat, tears, blood and life. After this war is over we will then be confronted by the herculean task of establishing the machinery for a permanent peace. Past experiences will be helpful in solving this problem. The solution thereof will call for the best talent of the world. Members of the Legal Profession, enacting and executing the fundamental plans. A Federation of the Nations of the world will be necessary. Provincialism will have to be discarded to a great extent. The foundation in this world wide structure will have to be "the Fatherhood of God and Brotherhood of Man." To make it effective, the old men will have to dream dreams and the young men will have to see visions. If this Federation is accomplished and functions successfully, the fond and noble dream and hope of Lord Tennyson will become a reality and the Nations of the World will bless his memory. But it is hoped that the builders of this new world, and those who lay the foundation therefor, shall preserve, so far as possible and so far as is meet and proper, the best traditions of Americanism. To our minds a peculiar opportunity and responsibility rests upon America. America today is the Greatest Nation in the World, and has been blessed with prosperity and power. At Peace Table its power and influence will and should dominate. Paraphrasing the appeal of Mordacia to Queen Ester when he said: "Who knows but that thou hast come into the Kingdom for just such a time as this." Who knows but that in the Province of God our Great United States has come into its position of power and authority for just such a time as this to save the civilization of the world.

THANKS TO THE PUBLIC

The officials of the Office of Civilian Defense wish to take this method to thank the public for the wonderful cooperation given last night during the Partial Blackout. There were no accidents and the Blackout was complete with one exception. A light was left burning in Mr. Earl Burkley's home due to absence of the family. In the future, no lights shall be left burning when any family is away from home.

Jim Eastland did more for the cotton farmers, great and small, in 90 days than Bilbo or Doxey have ever done. Bilbo claims credit for the establishing of the cotton laboratory, BUT it was located in New Orleans which is at least 100 miles from a stalk of cotton. If there is a great disparity in cotton allotments between the hills and the delta, then why did not Mr. Doxey, who has been a "big" gun on the Agricultural Committee of the House for many years, do something for his now-beloved hill constituents? Echo answers why?

Many people who had failed to register on the NEW books, were disappointed that they were unable to vote in the recent election. Do not blame the officers, who were carrying out the law. The thing to do is to go NOW to Charlie Worsham's office and register so that, if you are otherwise qualified, you can vote in the BIG election next year. If you fool around and dillydally until TOO LATE you cannot vote next year.

TO THE VOTERS OF GRENADA COUNTY:

Your attention is called to the position taken by the Hon. Roland Wall in the Senatorial race wherein he was eliminated in the first primary. He is supporting Wall Doxey for the United States Senate not-with-standing his personal and political opposition to Senator Bilbo. His reason for the same is that he feels that in this our hour of peril it is required that we have true and tried and experienced men in the Senate of the United States. Mr. Wall, as a patriotic citizen, is considering the interest and preservation of our country, our democracy, our civilization, and our concept of Christianity, of more importance than his own personal and political prejudices, well founded as they may be. We the friends and supporters of Senator Doxey commend this spendid example of true and patriotic citizenship for your consideration.

Contributed by Wall Doxey's friends in Grenada County.

Submitted to and approved by H. J. Williams, County Campaign Manager.

—V—

We are sorry to learn of the death of our next door neighbor, Mathew, the barber. His death occurred Saturday morning.

Roy Doak has decided to postpone build until sometime after the war.

Better mow off all those weeds and tall grass on your yards, for the city authorities will get you.

The jack barn still stands, as a memorial to something I know not what.

All right, if YOU are satisfied with the values placed upon your land in the camp area, I ought to be tickled to death. Seriously, if I am going to be able to publish a comprehensive story, I MUST have evidence from many others; otherwise I am going to let the matter drop.

Singer Walker of the bustling little city of Duck Hill was a recent visitor.

Pommie Rose has a whole flock of jack clerks.

Received a card mailed at the trans-fer station in Meridian from Stanley Heath, now in the USNR. He was en route somewhere, and asked to be remembered to everyone in Grenada.

Pidgeo put out two bits for an ad asking for a wardrobe trunk and was deluged just like Eastland was deluged with votes.

Kirk, the one-man institution of Grenada, pitched in two bucks for a renewal.

By the way, how about the other charter members, who have not done so doing the needful thing without being dunned or sued.

I hope the scars of the recent political battle will heal quickly.

IT CAN HAPPEN HERE

Let's not get overoptimistic because there is a LITTLE good news concerning the war in the papers. We lost by the mile and are regain'ng by the inch.

Private First Class Wade Rice formerly of Holcomb, has been added to the mailing list at Camp Ruckers. Welcome, soldier.

Our son, Sgt. Whyte Whitaker, is enroute to Camp Hood. If anyone knows what state Camp Hood is in, please let us know. Sweetheart it's in Texas, Mama.

Alot they sweet.

There are so many things going on that I cannot keep up with them.

Will O'Bryant of Oxberry was a recent caller. He reports that nobody has been killed at Oxberry recently.

Wonder where the Mayor of Oxberry is?

Homer Trussell of the sovereign state of Beat Two has again cast his lot with us, being a lamb returned to the fold.

There is already much talk about who is going to run for what, from governor down to constable.

Senator Winter attended the Eastland rally in Jackson Friday. I have gone to my last rally.

The village of Elliott, or rather the former village of Elliott, certainly looks forlorn.

Our plans for the large rotagravure section are going forward satisfactorily.

The GCW most heartily welcomes Mrs. W. H. Crowder, widow of one of Grenada county's most popular men, to its mailing list.

Wonder how Mr. Jim Shaw is getting along?

Holcomb was reported quiet the last reports.

Since Ben has been ill, John McEachin has been in high gear.

I do not believe Bet Horn will ever be a very large man.

Speaking of Horns, the dean of the clan, Mr. J. H. Horn, came in, brought forth a large wallet and took out two bucks which he paid in very cheerfully.

Continuing to speak of Horns, Mrs. Durrow Horn, who gets $1.10 from me every month was on the paying side this month, when she paid in a couple of cartwheels.

They haven't drafted Eaf Smith yet.

No Party To Be "Thrown" Says Abernethy

Okolona, Miss., Aug. 27.—"There will be no victory party," Congressman-Elect Abernethy stated here today. "I have requested my Campaign Manager, Honorable W. D. Gary, all members of the campaign organization, and my friends, to lay aside plans for such a celebration for the reason that our country is at war and thus permit the wounds, which are usually opened by a political campaign, to heal with the slightest delay in order that the efforts of all may be united for the good of our country".

He expressed his thanks to his campaign organization and his many friends "who were so loyal and who labored so untiringly" in his behalf. "I am going to Washington to work and not to play, to render a service to my district, state and nation, and I invite not only the advice and counsel of my friends, but of everyone", he stated.

Mr. Abernethy, tired and weary from his strenuous campaign is taking a much needed rest at his Okolona home with his wife and little daughter, Margaret Gail. Next week he will fill his duties as District Attorney at a term of Court in Holly Springs and thereafter he will make a tour of the District.

THE HOME FRONT

REGIONAL OFFICE OF WAR INFORMATION

Like everything else which comes to America in ships, coffee is becoming scarcer. WPB is reducing civilian coffee quotas to 65 percent of last year's peace-time consumption.

Nearly everybody, rich or poor, man or woman, will be called upon for war work before this thing is over, says the Southeastern War Manpower Commission. Sooner or later you can figure you'll be on the farm, in a war factory or shipyard unless you're destined for the armed services.

YOUTH WILL HELP

Schools may be called on to furnish crews for harvesting, rationing programs, civilian defense and other activities while buses may be used for war work and for military preparation. Educators have been asked to consider the effective war use of all youth from grade school pupils to college students.

Living as usual is going out for the duration.

THERE'LL BE CHANGES MADE

Each week new war orders foreshadow profound changes in our living habits.

Mail deliveries will be cut. Some mailboxes will stand idle from now on.

Hire of taxis and "drivey-self" cars for pleasure is banned.

Restrictions have been put on hotels and artificial gas.

CCC camps are going to be turned into detention centers and quarantine hospitals in Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, and Tennessee.

Live hogs are being covered by a price ceiling.

WPB has liberalized the restrictions on using Vitamin "A" in poultry and animal feeds.

There's a ban against renting typewriters manufactured since 1934.

COTTON SERVICE CEILINGS

Cotton warehouse storage charges have been placed under OPA price ceilings, and OPA has issued a new price regulation to hold down costs of ginning, drying, lint extracting, wrapping and tying.

To distinguish scrap dealers who are cooperating in the war effort, WPB will soon issue a "Scrap Producer Merit Award" which the dealer may place in his yard.

PREACHERS MAY RIDE

Ministers are eligible for new cars or tires when an auto provides their only means of getting around to preach the gospel, says a new OPA ruling [illegible] amendment.

MISSISSIPPI IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE

(By HERBERT G. ALLEN)

Does it make any difference to the average man who represents him in the U. S. Senate? In ordinary times, and with such professional politicians as Bilbo and Doxey representing Mississippi, I would unhesitatingly answer "NO!"

The average Mississippian no more profits through the presence of Bilbo and Doxey in the Senate than a wagon would profit by the addition of a fifth wheel. There is no mystery regarding the utter uselessness of Bilbo and Doxey. Their performances are exactly what might be expected of them if the people took them at their face value.

In Mississippi, politicians DO NOT represent any particular political principal. They DO represent the [illegible] of the particular group of wealthy and influential men who aid in their nomination, and who finance their political campaign. That is the central fact of Mississippi politics—a most ELOQUENT fact.

After election, the professional politician represents the group that backed him and financed his campaign. The sole ambition of the professional politician then becomes to remain in office all his life by keeping his political backers in the best possible humor.

It is a conservative estimate that a professional politician devotes more than ninety percent of his time to maintaining his personal political machine in power, and to entertaining his friends; and less than ten percent to the business for which he was elected. We have recently seen some remarkable evidence of this in Mississippi.

The Senate is at present confronted with the most serious problems it has ever faced. During these critical days, where are the hearts and minds (?) of the Senators from Mississippi?

Are Senators Bilbo and Doxey sorely concerned with the financing of our vast war effort? Are they deeply concerned with the multitude of problems arising from our national effort to prosecute this war to a decisive victory, and to bring peace to the world at the earliest possible moment? Of course NOT!

Their hearts and minds (?) are ev[illegible] concerned with something [illegible] important to boss man Bilbo [illegible] Senator Doxey. Do you expect Bilbo and Doxey to be concerned with the trifle such as the national welfare at a time when their political control of Mississippi is at stake?

Their hearts and minds (?) are concerned with the most important things in life. Bilbo and Doxey! If Nero fiddled while Rome burned, would Bilbo and Doxey fiddle while the world burns?

Bilbo and Doxey know not the time and money that they are costing the Mississippi electorate. The Senate's time and money is more personal, it is [illegible] Bilbo and Doxey have been getting away with murder for so long that they take it for granted. If it is not on them—it is not on Mississippi. But the people of Mississippi cannot afford extravagance, and who finance their political campaign. That is the central fact of Mississippi politics—a most ELOQUENT fact.

Knowing Bilbo's record, both public and private, it is amazing that [illegible] put a fool like Bilbo [illegible] to attend to PUBLIC business. No one knows that as well as Bilbo. So he goes cheerfully about his private business as a professional politician, as though all the world were peacefully asleep, and [illegible] had adjourned.

Not all professional politicians are like Bilbo and Doxey. A few, like Ross Collins, are quite effective. They credibly represent their districts. Ross may not be the Rock of the Flying Fortress, but he has distinguished some fine projects for his district centering around Meridian.

Bilbo and Doxey accomplish any politically worthwhile purpose. He got results because he was personally on the job. He was vainly belching hot air in Washington. He even wore patriotic ties, red, white and blue, such as those often seen on other politicians, probably hoping that by directing attention to his feet, no one would notice that his head was empty.

As for Senator Wall Doxey, he presented a rather pathetic case. He neither labored like Ross Collins, nor tried spell-binding like Theodore Bilbo. Like a bashful girl at a party, Mr. Doxey lapsed into a long silence. He just SAT in the Senate.

Just because Doxey just SAT in the Senate, do not get the impression that he was no use to Bilbo. Edgar Bergen would go out of business without Charlie McCarthey. So when you see Bilbo rushing around Mississippi campaigning for the handsome little dummy from Holly Springs, you can guess that Doxey made a mighty useful Charlie McCarthy for Senator T. Bilbo.

I wonder if the Southern aristocrats smiled at the amusing spectacle of Wall Doxey on the knee of What-a-Man Bilbo? It is a slyly humorous picture—if you know your Mississippi.

When you see Bilbo out campaigning for Doxey, you do not need to have Soloman point out to you that they are birds of a feather. But what an extremely odd pair of love-birds they are—Papa Bilbo and Mama Doxey. They have only ONE thing in common. They are both simply crazy about the same brand of bird seed that comes from the PUBLIC pocket.

It is seldom that I ever mention either Bilbo or Doxey, and I apologize for mentioning these flyweights now. So adieu to the great noise from Poplarville, and to the great silence from Holly Springs.

Getting back to the question: "Does it make any difference to the average man who represents him in the U. S. Senate?" I would answer that in ordinary times it does NOT, but that in extraordinary times it DOES! The present times are extraordinary, and the future promises to be likewise. Therefore the present senatorial campaign is of vital concern to YOU personally.

Because it is of such vital personal concern to all of us, we should give the closest attention to the candidacy of our neighbor over in Ruleville, the Honorable James O. Eastland.

Before we examine the special qualifications which entitle Mr. Eastland to represent Mississippi in the Senate, permit me to state that I am under no obligation to Mr. Eastland and that Mr. Eastland is under no obligation to me.

When, more than a year ago, I became keenly interested in Mr. Eastland's political future; when I met him in Washington and was first impressed with his earnestness, his ability, and his devotion to the South, I made it clear to him that I never would ask a favor from him as the price of my support.

My interest in Mr. Eastland is purely in what I think he can do for Mississippi and the South, not in what I think he might do for me. For some years I have been struggling along without assistance from Washington, and I hope to continue doing so indefinitely. So I can look at Mr. Eastland through disinterested eyes.

In addition to being particularly well informed on the South generally, and on Mississipi in particular, I have found Mr. Eastland to be a realist who deals with facts and not fancies. His personal investments in lumber, cotton and cottonseed, keep his attention riveted on our most important products. In connection with these, Mr. Eastland demonstrated in most practical fashion, in Washington, that he was not only willing, but he was able to go to bat in the interest of ALL classes in Mississippi and the South.

Because of his long association with lumber, cotton and cottonseed, which are exported all over the world, Mr. Eastland has a clear vision of what is ahead for the South in the post-war period. He is thoroughy alert to the pressing need for diversifying our agriculture and our industries.

Because of his long experience with our agricultural difficulties, of his realization that our natural resources are fast disappearing, and of his understanding of the vexing problems in financing new enterprises, Mr. Eastland is deeply interested in all plans designed to keep the South abreast of world conditions.

Remarkable changes have taken place in world trade. We must find ways to profit by these great changes, in order to compensate the South for the losses we have sustained in our foreign trade in cotton and lumber. A powerful friend in the Senate could do great work in aiding in the solution of these vital problems.

The American cigarette presents an interesting example of recent changes. Until two years ago our cigarette papers were imported from France, where they were manufactured from linen rags that were collected throughout Central Europe.

With importation shut off by the war, American ingenuity had to find an immediate substitute for the French product. Scientists discovered a process for converting the formerly worthless straw of the flax plant into the cigarette papers you are now using, to the financial advantage of California, and to the service of the nation.

Many similar industries, based upon agricultural products, will be developed in this country to suppy materials formerly imported from abroad. This iso ne of the greatest opportunities for the introduction of new agriculture and industry ever presented to the South.

Mr. Eastland is fully alive to the vast importance of these changes. He is the friend of those who are devoting their best thought and effort to modernizing the Southern economic structure. In the Senate, he would give active assistance in creating a new economic order in the South.

While serving in Washington, he was dominated by a single ambition: that ambition was to bring greater prosperity to the South. Before me, I have Mr. Eastland's solemn pledge, to continue his aggressive support of progressive measures, if he is elected to the Senate.

Mr. Eastland is not a professional politician. He will gadly permit his political fortunes to rest in your hands, asking that you judge him solely on the merit of his ACTUAL record. It was my privilege to see Mr. Eastland make that record, and from personal observation, I can testify to his ability, his integrity and his sincerity.

On the record of his successful performance in the Senate, Mr. Eastland deserves an opportunity to demonstrate what he can do during a full term in Washington, and I take genuine pleasure in commending his as an able and an honest candidate for the great office of United States Senator.

Time marches on! Vote our obsolete, do-nothing professional politicians out of Washington! Vote Bilboism out of Mississippi! Vote a Political New Order in Mississippi! Vote your patriotic confidence in the New South! Vote for a bright, aggressive, able, gentlemanly young Mississippian for United States Senator! Vote for Jim Eastland!

If it looks like Mr. Doxey is any sort of menace, the GCW will probably publish his record; but, if not, there's no use in going to that much trouble.

Wonder how Spencer Bell is getting along?

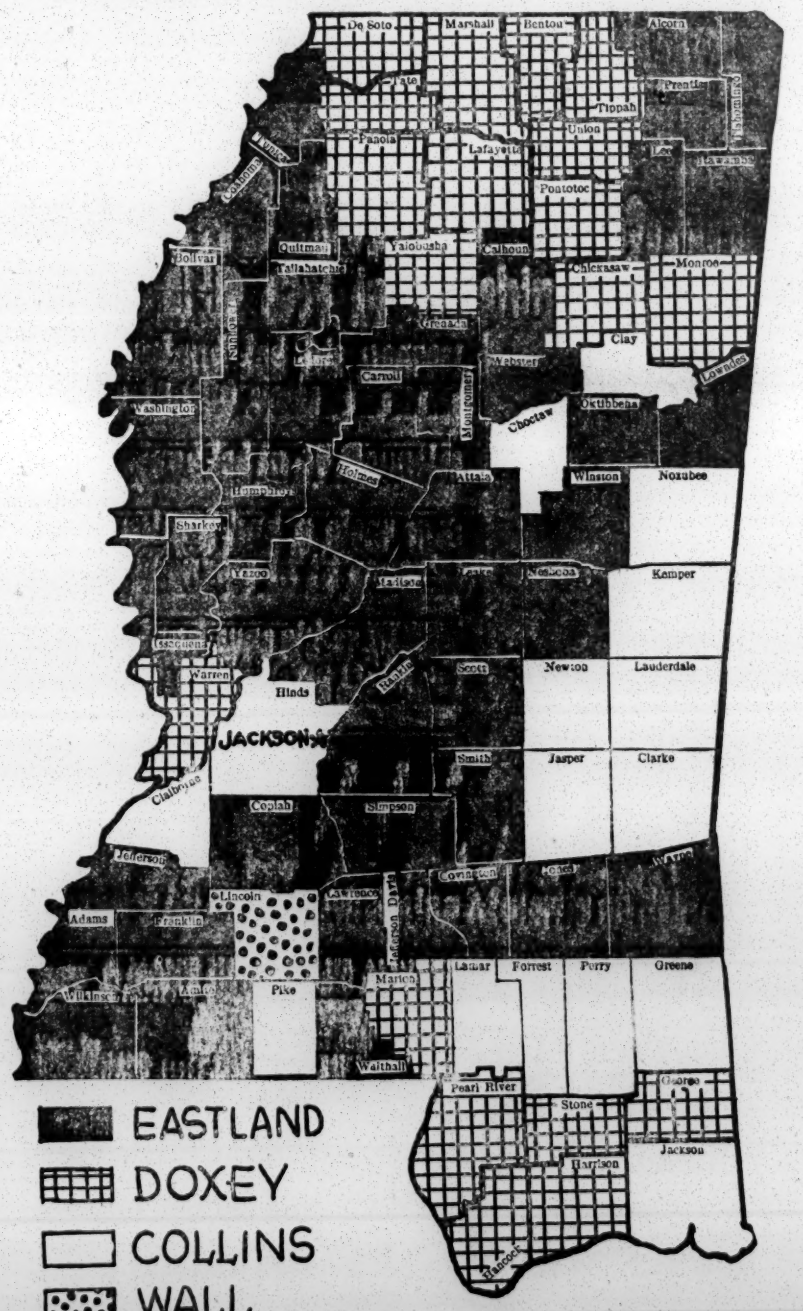
FIRST PRIMARY SHOWS EASTLAND CARRIED 46 COUNTIES—DOXEY 19



Complete unofficial results in Mississippi's Democratic Primary on August 25 revealed that a total of 132,672 votes were cast in the senatorial race as follows:

Eastland	49,723
Doxey	37,684
Collins	36,445
Wall	7,649
Smith	1,171

The above map shows graphically the way Mississippi voters favored the five senatorial candidates.

Eastland carried a total of 46 counties, shown in solid black. Doxey carried a total of 19 counties, shown by crossed lines. Collins carried a total of 16 counties shown in solid white. Wall carried a total of one county shown with dots. Eastland and Doxey thus enter the 3-week run-off for United States Senator from Mississippi. The Second Primary will be held Tuesday, September 15.

A comparison of the vote received by Eastland and Doxey follows:

	Eastland	Doxey	Eastland Lead Over Doxey
Total vote	49,723	37,684	12,039
Counties Carried (Plurality)	46	19	27
Counties With Majority Over All Opponents	14	8	6

Eastland received an unusual vote of confidence from his home counties and his home precincts.

In Scott County, where he has lived most of his life, Eastland received 1,527 votes to 746 for all four opponents. In Sunflower County, where he now resides, Eastland received 2,132 votes, to 293 for all four opponents. In Doddsville, his home box, Eastland received 137 votes to 4 for all four opponents. In Ruleville, where he has his office, Eastland received 309 votes, to 1 for all four opponents.

THROUGH A WOMAN'S EYE

By Mrs. W. W. Whitaker

"HOUSE WIFE"

Women, classed in all the catagories as "house wives" are the most important people in America. You, who are not organized into unions or corporations who have never made a pressure group, can determine whether this country succeeds or fails in the great task it has set itself, of arming and supplying the defenders of freedom under law and protecting the future American a nation, free, prosperous and powerful.

You will very likely ask, "Why?" Because you hold the pocketbook of the Nation is the answer!! The pocketbook of the Nation is not the possession of great banks, or in Wall Street or in great industrial corporations, it's in John D. Citizen's trousers pocket and in John D.'s wife's purse. The pocketbook of America is the sum of the salary checks and pay checks for wages. That sum is the national income of the United States, with small exception. In the hands of the "house wife" whether she be discreet or indiscreet is thrust the mighty problem of spending, saving and investing.

SEPTEMBER

Well how the seasons do spin a round. Holidays and vacation time that seemed slow in materializing last May have come and gone and now we are to become all "a dither" over school opening, clubs resuming their regular meetings, and church programs worked out regularly.

Grenada City Schools will open Thursday, September 3rd, and we will call attention to the change in daily schedule. Please note:

The daily class schedule will begin at 9 o'cock instead of 8:30, the noon hour will be the same, namely from 12 to 12:55, dismissed at 3:30.

With reluctance I give voice to my views concerning the petitioned and impending election on whether we are to sell beer in Grenada or not.

As one who never drank beer it's possible that I do not realize what effect beer has on the senses of people. It's entirely possible that those who are fighting the sale of beer do know the effect, and know it to be harmful. The thing I do know is that there are splendid citizens in Grenada, perfectly honest and intelligent people who conceive that it is their destiny and duty to act as supervisors of all activities to the point of telling home merchants what to sell, of telling home folks what not to indulge in and of telling the thousands of temperate men who are to live in Grenada that they cannot drink a cold bottle of beer at the end of a long day of toil.

Let me say here that excluding beer sale in Grenada county will not solve the problem of beer drinking. The people who want to drink beer will get it, and will get it in dives where they do not bother to sell it now, and in private homes. They will drink it as they drink bootleg whiskey, in cars parked on dark road sides, and in the seclusion of houses of ill repute. They will go to adjoining towns and bring back cases of it. The tax on beer is a heavy tax. The dealers and those who dispense it turn in thousands of dollars in tax to our city, county and state. Why stop the sale of beer? Why not train your citizens to be temperate? Why say "No" to the man who is temperate just because of some intemperate man?

Beer is a restricted product now and strictly rationed. The lack of metal for bottle caps and the heavy demand for alcohol in munition manufacture is the reason for this. Most dealers say they get only one fourth deliveries now.

Not only do I advocate selling beer just as they are selling it now, but I am convinced that the legalized sale of liquor is much to be preferred to the terrible condition we have now, due largely to the criminals who will sell whiskey and gin to a 19 year old boy as quickly as they would to a 50 year old man.

It is being told here that in Vaiden, Miss., recently a prominent citizen was very much embarrassed, when in speaking to a gathering of people, against the sale of beer, this person was interrupted by another citizen with a request that the speaker stop sending their servants to buy whiskey and beer at the beer dispenser's place of business and from the bootlegger.

There is no need to worry too much about beer when there are other conditions needing our attention. Such as "Winning a War." How much scrap iron have you personally gathered and given to the scrap pile? Are you saving bacon grease? Are you praying for Victory or are you letting our boys walk into the jaws of hell inadequately armed?

D. O. Program For Coming Year

The Diversified Occupation department of Grenada High School is entering upon its third year of operation. In the regular school program boys and girls in the eleventh and twelfth grades are eligible to take the work. Two classes of school work are provided along with practical experience on some job in town. Boys and girls planning on attending college should talk with L. E. Norsworthy, Vocational Supervisor, if they desire to take D. O. Certain courses of study in college will not accept vocational work, but for the most part full credit for our work will be granted. There are a number of opening in local business and industrial establishments for boys and girls where they can get experiences that will qualify them to step into a regular job upon completion of their schooling. Those interested should contact L. E. Norsworthy.

In our out-of-school program, a machine shop and aircraft sheetmetal and riveting training classes are provided to equip both boys and girls to enter war industries where they can aid our country's cause. During the past six months over two hundred have been awarded certificates after completing the training. Most of these are working in war plants. Other classes will be organized to meet local and sectional needs if they are deemed necessary.

Classes Conducted In Show Card Writing, Etc.

Classes conducted in show card writing and window display, under the supervision of the D. O. Department of the local high school, and in cooperation with Mississippi State College and the State Department of Vocational Education close today, August 25. The classes have been conducted by Charles M. Stewart, Itinerant Instructor. These classes were attended by both employers and employees of local business houses. Approximately thirty attended the classes. It is felt that these classes have served a useful purpose in aiding our merchants and their employees in better displaying and selling their merchandise. Those attending have expressed their appreciation of this service rendered through the Vocational Education Department of the high school. These classes were arranged and made possible through the local school and L. E. Norsworthy, Vocational Supervisor. There was no charge for the courses, the instruction being provided through the State Vocational Department.

Harris Family Reunion Held At Hardy

The home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Goodwin, of Hardy, was the meeting place, Sunday, August 16, 1942, for the annual family reunion of the descendents of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harris, of Cascilla. To this union there were born nine children, four boys and five girls of which Mrs. Eugene Brown, of Cascilla and Mrs. M. D. Goodwin, of Hardy are the only survivors.

There were 84 present last year but on account of tires there were only 50 present this year.

Some were there that hadn't been before and too, we had gained several in laws and some were there.

We were glad to have Miss Mitt Elliott, of Charleston, with us to enjoy the day. Miss Mitt has been a life long friend of Mrs. E. T. Brown and Mrs. M. D. Goodwin.

At the noon hour a bountiful dinner was spread and everyone enjoyed the good eats.

The place to meet next year will be decided later.

Everyone enjoyed the unsurpassed hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Goodwin and family and were glad to see Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Goodwin, who are the aged parents of T. W. Goodwin, enjoy the day to the fullest extent, and hope they will get to enjoy many more.

Guests were Mr. Floyd Brown, of Mr. Spencer Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Allie Milam, Mrs. Chas. Harrelson, Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Pate Brown, Cascilla; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB MET FIRST 1942-43 MEETING

The personnel of the Twentieth Century Club met at the Community House Tuesday afternoon of this week at 3:30 o'clock, for the initial meeting of 1942-43 session. This open meeting was attended by many guests from other clubs and by a representative group of wives of army officers, who are residing in Grenada now.

As the guests arrived they were greeted by club members and the two hostesses, Mrs. E. L. Marders and Mrs. Giles Patty, and were escorted to the table where they were served fruit punch and delectable cookies. A bevy of young girls, lovely in party frocks assisted with the serving of refreshments. In this group were included Misses Louise Avent, Carolyn Whitaker, Sue Vandiver and Nancy Catherine Patty. Miss Gene Marders, gifted pianist, played several lovely selections on the grand piano while refreshments were being served. The tea table was lovely indeed with clusters of golden glod interspersed with foliage used as a centerpiece, and matching crystal punch bowls placed at each end of the lace draped table.

After singing the first stanza, "My Country 'Tis of Thee," the clubs president, Mrs. J. B. Perry, Sr., spoke briefly in welcome the audience and to introduce Mrs. John Rundle, who in turn introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Arthur Wade. Mrs. Wade is a native Mississippian and has for the past 18 years lived abroad with her husband, Dr. Arthur Wade, a British subject, who is a geologist working for his government in Australia. Before turning the program over to Mrs. Wade, Mrs. Rundle spoke briefly on the programs for the year. The programs will be on "Famous Women of Yesterday and Today" and keen interest will be reflected as the programs unfold, month by month. Aside from program importance the Twentieth Century Club renders a splendid civic service by sponsoring the Grenada Public Library.

Mrs. Wade brought a poignant message to her audience, not only by words, but by the very shadows which crossed her sensitive face as she revealed the hurt and the injustice done by the enemies of her native land and to her adopted home. She brought a stern warning that we are facing a terrible enemy in the Japanese, a cruel and desperate and scheming enemy and we must not be complacent and half awake in the face of such danger.

She spoke at length about several very wonderful women who lived in Australia. She has great confidence in Sister Kenna, the nurse who is so successful in treating polio patients. Mrs. Wade's great ladies, were without exception, those women who had worked long and hard for an ideal. They were truly fine and splendid workers in uplifting the weak and in guiding the natives in truly Christian ways, and in doing their share to make Australia a wonderful continent.

Mrs. Arthur Wade, of Pace, Miss., lecturer, who spoke at the Rotary Club Tuesday noon and at the Twentieth Century Club that afternoon, was the house guest of her girlhood friend, Mrs. F. A. Stacy, while here. After the club meeting Mrs. Stacy accompanied her guest to Winona, where she caught a bus to return to her parents' home in Pace.

LETTER FROM SAILOR

Dear Mr. Whitaker:

I guess you will be surprised to hear from me. I intended to write you before now, but haven't had time.

What I wanted to find out is what it would cost me to get a paper each week. If it is possible for me to get it please send me the price of the paper for a year plus the postage.

Since there are many different things happenig in Grenada, I would like to keep up with them. I think this would be the best way for me to follow them.

That was about the only way I kept up with them while I was there.

Tell all of those boys that are waiting to be drafted they had better get wise and join the Navy. They just know how much better the Navy really is. Of course I am in the best part of the Navy. In the Hospital Corps we get the best living quarters and best eats. We arso get the most work. I'm not joking though it sure is a swell life. If they know what I know never would they let the Army draft them.

Well I guess this is all the news at the present. I will sure appreciate all that you do for me.

Yours ttruly,
William Spears.

MISSISSIPPIANS WANT A MAN
★ They Can DEPEND ON in Washington ★
That's WHY Jim Eastland led his nearest opponent by over 12,000 votes - - - -
That's WHY Jim Eastland led in 47 Counties
That's WHY Jim Eastland had a clear majority over all 4 opponents in 14 counties
That's WHY Jim Eastland was either FIRST or Second in 71 of the State's 82 Counties

THAT'S WHY - - - - - - - -
JIM EASTLAND
will be elected U. S. Senator by an Overwhelming Majority on Sept. 15

MISSISSIPPIANS Will Elect Eastland Because They Want:
—New blood in Washington
—A man who has shown his qualifications as a statesman
—A man who will fight for economic justice for the farmers and small business men of the south
—A man who has a constructive plan for winning the war and the peace

A MAN'S HOME FOLKS ALWAYS KNOW HIM BEST

	SCOTT COUNTY (where Jim was raised)	FOREST (Jim's old home town)	SUNFLOWER COUNTY (where Jim now lives)	DODDSVILLE (Jim's home box)	RULEVILLE (where Jim has his office)
Votes for JIM EASTLAND	1527	341	2132	137	309
Votes for all 4 opponents.....	746	147	293	4	1

★ Jim Eastland's majority in Forest and Scott county was over 2 to 1 over all 4 opponents even though this was the Congressional district of one of his opponents.

Jim Eastland's majority over all four opponents was:
Over 7 to 1 in Sunflower County
Over 34 to 1 in Doddsville
309 to 1 in Ruleville

No Man Could Ask For a Finer Endorsement From Home!

JIM EASTLAND asks the 45,000 independent men and women who by their first primary votes for Ross Collins and Roland Wall REFUSED to bow-their-knees to a political dictator, to join hands with him in his fight for political decency and freedom in Mississippi.

By The Editor

—V—

I get so confused by what Fred Sullens says, what the dozen or so Senators say, what Doxey and Homer Williams say and what Jim Eastland and Tom Hederman say that I have decided to stay with my old ticket—"Vote against every man serving in Washington"—and hope for the best.

31 men are leaving for camp Tuesday. Each of them who has registered on the NEW registration books, has a free vote coming. He can go to the Circuit Clerk's office anytime up to Tuesday and cast an absentee vote. But, you had better vote when you come to town Saturday.

After a painstaking analysis of the petition for a beer election and of the registered voters, the board of supervisors ascertained that there were 482 persons qualified to vote in General Election and that 273 qualified persons had signed the several petitions. The 273 were slightly more than the necessary 20 percent. The board, therefore, ordered an election to be held on General Election Day, during the first part of November. Having the two elections held at the same time by the same officers will save the county about $300.00.

Dear George Lickfold: write to the State Department of Health at Jackson giving your full name, date of birth and place of birth, and request information about how to secure the Birth Certificate.

Houses and trees are being removed from a square mile of land (most of which I once owned) near Oxberry to be made into an emergency landing field. The house that once cost me a neat $3,500 was sold for $50. I understand.

If I published everything I knew, I would be run out of town.

Our sympathy is extended Miss Elizabeth McNeill whose mother died this week. Elizabeth was so busy that she could not get the details to us.

City Schools classes started Monday. At the white school there was a loss of 75 pupils from the Elliott area, and a gain of 100 from other areas, making a net gain of about 25. There was a gain of about 100 pupils at the colored school.

As more and more people see the nice personal stationery we print for men in the service, the more orders we get. 100 sheets of paper with man's name and rank and insignia of the branch of service (Army, Air Corp, Navy, etc.) and 100 printed envelopes for $2.00; 200 for $3.00.

Dear Mr. Red: I read with great interest your suggestion that we join the family. Le's.

Homer Williams, we are sorry to note, got sick Wednesday. I advised him months ago not to let his blood pressure get to high about Wall Doxey or anybody else. I imagine the doctors tell him the same thing.

We have added to the Chicago bunch the name of Mrs. J. W. Riley of Chicago, formerly of Duck Hill.

Subscriptions for the school term for boys and girls in college have risen to $1.25 per head.

We have a few ads for a change this week.

From the Commercial Appeal, Washington, D. C. bureau "It is reported here that Mr. Wall has joined the Bilbo forces and is supporting Sen. Doxey for re-nomination, with further report that he is to be restored to his old job of WPA Administrator." I am not only surprised at, but ashamed of Poll-em.

Our supervisors were with us this week. They are doing a good job.

If "taking" all Jewish holidays is an indication of being a good Jew, Harry Greenfield is a good Jew. He will celebrate Jewish New Year Saturday and Yom Kipper on Monday week. He probably will not eat any hog meat on those two days.

It is raining to beat hell but there is nothing that Bilbo or I can do about it. Mr. Ford is no longer interested in what happens or what does not happen here.

Talbert Turner was pretty dressed up Sunday.

The election did not seem to displease Vernon Gibson of Holcomb. But to the contrary.

It looks like Bob Carpenter is enjoying a mighty fine business.

Genial Bob Carpenter, his face almost always wreathed in a smile, came into the office recently and renewed.

State Agricultural Com. Advises Cotton Farmers

After studying the present marketing situation in regard to cotton and taking into consideration the President's message of Monday night, September 7th, a committee, representing the various agricultural agencies and farm organiations in the state, issued the following recommendation today: That unless cotton producers can market their cotton as harvested at or above parity prices, they be encouraged to place it in the government loan to be marketed later at not less than parity price.

This recommendation applies primarily to the cotton with staple lengths of 15/16 through 1 3/32.

The committee making the recommendation was composed of S. Corley, Commissioner of Agriculture; L. I. Jones, Director of Extension; Owen Cooper, Farm Bureau; Charlie McNeil, General Manager, Mississippi Federated Cooperatives; Ross Smith, General Manager, Mississippi Cooperative Service Association; Ernest Spivey, Assitant, Mississippi Federated Cooperatives; Vernon Lee, Extension Marketing Specialist; and A. P. Fatherree, State Supervisor of Agricultural Education.

The government crop report released September 8th indicates a total 1942 crop of cotton at 11028,000 bales, or nearly a million bales increase over the estimate of a month earlier. This indication of a large crop is a further reason why farmers should not sell their cotton for less than parity prices.

The following are parity prices on middling cotton based on 1885e per pound, with differences for staple lengths the same as those established by the government for loan cotton:

Middling	Price Parity
15-16	19.05
31-32	19.15
1	19.25
1 1-32	19.40
1 1-16	19.90
1 3-32	20.90

Judge Peagram Speaks In Interest of Doxey

Judge Peagram, of Ripley, former circuit judge of the northeastern district of the State, spoke to a small but attentive crowd of people in the public square Tuesday night in the interest of his choice, Junior Senator Wal Doxey.

Hon. Lester Faut, of Holly Springs, was scheduled to speak, but was unable to be present.

Judge Peagram was introduced by Mayor Proby.

Four Sons In Army

Motor Corps H. D. Staten (June), spent the past week with his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Staten, at Oxberry. June is stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Staten have four sons in the service.

GORE SPRINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McGahey attended a mass meeting in Grenada Sunday, afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McGahey at fine soldier boys thru the week-end. They were Messrs. Earl Lite Gillon and "Tony" Chamberlain. Both were looking well. The former visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gillon, the latter his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Chamberlain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tharpe and little daughter, Peggy Ann, spent Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Tharpe.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruffin, visited their daughter, Miss Maysel Ruffin, popular teacher of Gore Springs Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. McCormick, of Grenada, spent the week-end in the home of parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Haile.

Miss Elwanda Mirman, who has been teaching the past month is home for a month.

Don't forget the singing every 2nd and 4th Sunday afternoons at the school building starting at 3 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Mesdames Homer Trussell and Annie Tharpe and T. J. Tharpe and Homer Dale Trussell made a pop call in Graysport Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Roy Martin's many friends will regret to learn that she has undergone an operation in the Greenville Hospital, but hope she will soon be back at home.

Red Cross Volunteers Needed

The Red Cross wants volunteer knitters to make garments for men in the armed forces. Please call Mrs. Eli Whitaker at 231. A large shipment of material has been received at the Red Cross sewing room and you are urged to volunteer to do this sewing. Please call Miss Jane Young at 159 and she will give you the proper information.

Youth Revival, A Fine Meeting For Grenada

The Youth Revival at the Methodist Church began Sunday night with Sam Stanley from Memphis as speaker. Mr. Stanley used as his theme the general theme of the week, "Youth Faces the World Today." He said youth must turn to Christ for the facing of this hour."

Mr. Allen Cash, directed the congregational singing during the week. Different young people read the scripture and led in prayer.

Monday night Rev. E. M. Sharp from Hernando spoke. His theme was "Youth Facing Today with Jesus Christ." Rev. Sharp went on to say that if Jesus were living today His dress would be like ours, but His principles would be the same as in His own day. Although He was an idealist, He was the greatest realist the world has ever known.

Rev. Ellis Tingle the pastor at Cold Water, spoke Tuesday night. He said we can't get happiness from satisfying our own selfish desires, but true happiness comes from an inner satisfaction of having given our best to the service of others. He said success is not measured by the money or power one receives, but is obtained from having lived the good life and giving our all to the work of Christ.

The speaker Wednesday night was Mirl Whitaker, of Sardis. Mr. Whitaker is the Youth president of the North Mississippi Conference. He used as his theme, "Believing to Live." Mr. Whitaker said we must have faith in whatever we do. We must be willing and anxious to give our all for Christ in order to achieve a world peace. The job of making peace is up to the youth of the Nation.

Rev. C. A. Pharr closed the Revival Thursday night.

We feel that the week has been one of success and inspiration to the young people. Our prayer is that they will remember what has been said and that it will help them face their problems with Christ as their guide.—Contributed.

Letter From State Supt. J. S. Vandiver

In a letter dated August 19, from Mr. John D. Wise, State Rationing Officer, he gives us the following information, which was given him by the State Rationing Attorney, in regard to the regulations governing the use of tires on school buses:

"I advise that under Section 405 (c) (2) of the Revised Tire Rationing Regulations certificates may be issued to equip school buses with new tires and tubes. Paragraph 2 of this section provides that no vehicle equipped with tires or tubes for which certificates have been granted shall be used for excursions of any character. Transportation shall be provided only from the homes of students and teachers or from regular school bus stops to the regular places of instruction. 'Regular place of instruction' has been interpreted to mean the school site proper and excludes any outside field or project work.

"This regulation is very strict and school buses cannot, under the regulations, be used for any purpose other than the transportation of students and teachers from their homes to the place of instruction proper."

We are calling attention to this important information with the hope that all bus drivers will conform to same. Transportation is indeed a most serious problem and only by the cooperation of all school people can we hope to keep our school buses running next session.

We feel sure that Mr. Wise and his staff will continue to go the 'second mile' in trying to provide tires so that school buses can run if all school people will cooperate fully in this important matter.

Garden Club Announces Change in Meeting Place

The Garden Club will meet in the home of Mrs. A. N. Rayburn on Thursday, Sept. 17, at 3:30 o'clock.

Please note that this meeting is scheduled to be in the home of Mrs. Robert E. Hall, but was changed because Mrs. Hall is out of town.

William B. Johnson Died Sunday, August 30th

On Sunday morning at 4 o'clock on August 30th the sweet spirit of Mr. William B. Johnson passed to be with the Master whom he loved, served and worshiped. Mr. Johnson had been in ill health for five years, having a complication of troubles. He bore his illness with grace and fortitude. He was so patient and always thoughtful of others. He died in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Sam C. Stanley, Sr. of Tie Plant, with whom he and Mrs. Johnson had been making their home for several months.

All medical aid and the best of nursing and care was given him by his devoted wife and children. Vitality, eagerness and interest in life were his to the end. He took an active part in those things which stood for an uplift and betterment of the community welfare.

Mrs. Johnson was born on February 1, 1875, 67 years of age. He was married to Miss Queen Head in 1896. He became a member of the Methodist Church early in life and was a faithful attendant as long as his health would permit. His home was the preacher's home, was always interested in the pastor's welfare. He leaves behind a life well spent, a heritage his children and grandchildren should be proud of.

The funeral services were held on Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the Methodist Church in Tie Plant by his pastor, Rev. A. W. Bailey. Interment in the Grenada cemetery. Many lovely floral offerings gave silent testimony of the love and esteem with which Mr. Johnson was regarded.

He is survived by his wife and five children, Mrs. J. L. Goss, Tie Plant; J. B. Johnson, Holcomb; J. R. Johnson, Mobile, Ala.; Earl F. Johnson, Memphis; and Mrs. Sam C. Stanley, Sr. Tie Plant and eight grandchildren, one brother and two sisters, Mr. L. B. Johnson, Memphis; Mrs. Mary Byers, Dallas, Texas; Mrs. H. H. Redd, Abalon, Va.

Those from a distance who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Atkinson and son, of Jackson; Miss Wilma Berryhill, Mrs. Earl Johnson, Mrs. Leslie Johnson, Memphis.

We can say nothing to mitigate your grief or to relieve your sorrow, but we extend to you the sincerest sympathy.—Contributed by a Friend.

USO To Sponsors Program At Community House

The local USO at their most recent meeting decided to sponsor a recreational program on Tuesday and Friday evenings at the Community House. Arrangements have been made, and chaperones arranged for. This week Woman's Club, Mrs. Frank Gerard, president, will act as chaperones.

The young people at the camp, at Grenada Industries, Inc. and other young people are cordially invited to come spend the evening with friends and to become acquainted with other young people in Grenada.

When you arrive at the Community House, call for the chaperone.

THANKS USO

Dick Rule, local boy who has recently gone to camp at Nashville, He expressed his appreciation for the small token given him by the USO when he left and assured Mrs. Avent of the warm place USO has in his heart.

Big Contract Let At Air Base

The U. S. Engineer Office of Vicksburg today announced award of a contract to Morrisey and Knost, of Vicksburg, Miss., for constructin of buildings and training aids, sewage system, water distribution system, roads and grading in Grenada and Montgomery Counties, Miss. Amount of the contract is between $100,000 and $500,000.

Chamberlain-Peacock House Badly Damaged By Fire

The historic old Chamberlain-Peacock home on Second Street, owned by Col. W. B. Hoffa, and used as a boarding and rooming house to take care of nearly 100 workmen at the camp, was severely daamged by fire Thursday afternoon last.

Volunteer workers attracted to the scene aiding in saving most of the household goods, while the firemen saved most of the heart pine structure.

It seems evident that the fire started somewhere in the attic and started from unknown causes.

Master Sergeant Sidney Jackson has been visiting his mother, Mrs. Beulah Jackson, and other relatives, but has left for the new post of duty at Camp Clairborne, La.

Good luck, soldiers.

THROUGH A WOMAN'S EYE

By Mrs. W. W. Whitaker

Since childhood the phrase "The way Maine goes, (in an election) so goes the Nation," but we cannot help observing that the State of New York is also a fair barometer of how the political wind blows.

In the resent New York State, governor election, "Jim" Farley elected his candidate and defeated President Roosevelt's candidate—now the idea is being passed around to run "Jim" Farley for democratic nominee in the next presidential race.

There are good democrats so sick of the way things have been run in Washington, that I doubt seriously if they will even vote for Jim Farley for president. There are good men and women in both parties. We have some wise republicans, some wise democrats, but unless you elect sensible representatives, unless you have sensible electors, you cannot have a sensible administration. A well informed, conscientious citizen who votes for morally sound officials, from constable to governor is the only possible method we have of returning to that state of affairs which existed when the solid—unselfish signers of the Declaration of Independence drew up our sacred Constitution.

In a world which cries out in agony for more able, stronger and more conscientious leaders, may only those prompted by unselfish patriotism backed by proven ability and unimpeachable character offer themselves as our leaders.

Our youngest daughter has gone a way to school and it may be weeks before we will see her again. She made the trip on the train with many strangers. Self conscious, eager, half happy and half sad, trusting yet cautious, expectant yet not to be disappointed, with a surety of purpose to have a good time and to study and to come home for a "wee" visit soon. She is standing on a new threshold and the very adaptibility, the very success of her life at college depends on the training she had at home during babyhood and young girlhood.

I know she will be associated with fine teachers and school mates. I do not expect her to disappoint her new friends, for I, of all people, know her to be genuine and sweet.

Three More Men Enlist

Three Grenada men, Eddie Nored, Fred Griffin, and R. L. "Baby" Bingham, went o Memphis last Saturday and enlisted in U. S. Army.

The "All Out For Victory" Edition in the rotogravure process printing of the G-W continues to gain momentum. The loyal and patriotic construction folks at Camp McClain have cooperated almost 100 percent in helping to put the edition over. Among those are the following:

J. A. Jones Construction Co.
Smith and Pew Construction Co.
Robinson and Young
Wesco Construction Company
Interstate Roofing Company
Shelby Electric Company
Concrete Construction and Supply Company
Concrete Gravel Company
Interstate Engineering Company
Newson Brothers, and a number of material furnishers.

With one exception every contractor and material supplier has participated in this undertaking, or has agreed to do so.

In connection with the proper of cuts and Mexican photographs the air has been made of the various activities of the construction people all of which of course first had the approval of Army Engineers and their competent and efficient organization.

It is the sincere desire of the Grenada County Weekly to produce an edition that will be a credit to the camp, the engineers and contractors, to the city and County of Grenada and, of course, to itself. If it continues to meet with the success it has already had it will be the largest edition ever published in Grenada. Copies of it will, we believe, be preserved as long as paper lasts.

Inasmuch as this edition will be a community builder and a community booster and one which should redound to the credit of this community, we solicit the cooperation of business firms, civic bodies and the officials of our community.

At a time not far distant Mr. Meyers will contact local people in Grenada. A sympathetic hearing is solicited for him when he does call.

Program Tuesday For Boys Leaving For Camp

On Tuesday morning, September 15, Grenada County will again send men to the army. They are to leave Grenada at 9 o'clock and travel by bus to Camp Shelby, near Hattiesburg.

The mothers of the men in Armed Forces with Mrs. E. L. Betz in charge, are planning a program to be held at the public square at 8:15 a. m. and all friends and relatives of the 34 men leaving are invited to come and bid these boys good bye.

The ladies will give the young men small tokens provided by the USO.

Library News

Elizabeth Jones, Librarian

The Grenada County Library wishes to express its thanks to the Board of Aldermen and the Board of Supervisors for their continued support of its finances. The same appropriations as last year were granted.

The past year was a good one in the library. There are 5500 books in the collection, 522 being added during '41. The circulation for that year was 18,176 books.

The work with the schools was very successful. During the past school session 10,748 books were read in the elementary schools of Grenad. The county school circulation reached almost 20,000 volumes. 280 books were purchased for the county schools thru cooperation with the Supt. of Education. Half of these books are now in a pooled collection and are being exchanged among the county schools, so that fresh books are available to all schools.

NEW BOOKS

Dollar Cotton, Faulkner.
Drivin' Woman, Chevalier.

The Soldier

Some people here in Grenada, secure in their own homes and, until inflation comes, secure in their financial life shudder at the thought of so many soldiers to be in Grenada soon, just as they would shudder if the bubonic plague or leprosy was about to break out in this community.

What is a soldier? He is just your boy and my boy in uniform. He is the guy who is training to make YOU secure in the possession of your home and in your financial holdings. Soldiers, as a class, are just young, healthy Americans, just like the neighbor's boy or your young cousin in Detroit.

It makes me sick at the stomach to hear folks belittling the men who are about to become integral parts in the gigantic war machine to free YOU and ME from Nazi tyranny.

I served nearly two years in the United States Army during the first World War. I feel like I know soldiers. Some of them will get drunk. How about some of the smug folks who get sopping drunk on every occasion, yet who "view with alarm" the coming of soldiers. Some of the soldiers shoot craps and play poker and black jack. How about YOU? Don't you play bridge for money, bet on football games and sometimes take a flyer in the stock market? Some of the soldiers like to fool around with wimmen. Is THAT a peculiar characteristic of the soldier?

I hear tales that soldiers will knock on the first door they come to and, when the door is opened, say "I want a woman." I NEVER, in all of my two years service in the United States Army heard of such a thing. I have heard that soldiers will do this or that, all of which are bad things. Some of them WILL do bad things. Civilians do bad things, otherwise Judge Carothers and Judge McKibben would go out of business, and other courts would have spider webs festooned all over the place.

My fellow soldiers and I had more time and leisure in the last war—to be devoted to getting into devilment—than the soldiers of the present war have. After a soldier spends from ten to fourteen hours drilling, studying and participates in the rigorous schedules now outlined for him, he has neither time nor inclination to get into MUCH devilment; his bed offers more prospective delight to him than does anything else.

Remember, when you belittle the soldier, you are belittling the man who is defending YOU and YOURS.

Badges For The Rejected Men

You and I both know men who, to the layman's eye, appear to be suitable material for soldiers.

You and I both know men who have sought to enlist in every branch of the service and, in every case, have been turned down on account of defects not apparent to the layman.

You and I know men who have been sent to Camp Shelby and rejected.

You and I know men, big and strong, who have wives and children, yet do not wear a big sign, "I have a wife and five kids," over their shoulders.

You and I know men, big and strong, who have been deferred on account of the fact that they are engaged in vital work.

But you and I DO NOT know all of them. Therfore, when you and I see a young healthy fellow walking about (and, at the same time, do not know his inner physical ailments or his dependency status) we look at him like a bull looks at a bastard calf.

These young men who have been deferred or rejected can "feel" the unmerited resentment of those they meet. Sensing the resntment of the people they meet on the street—and being unable to do anything about it, or to wear a big sign—their morale weakens. They can no longer do their jobs as they should. They cannot stop and tell everyone they meet that, "I am married," or that "I have a serious heart ailment," or that, "I am a key worker in an essential industry."

It would be very simple, and would certainly contribute to the public morale, for each branch of the service to have available badges, buttons or what not (verified by written statements) for those men who have been rejected; and for the draft boards to have buttons, badges or something like that (verified by written evidence) to be given the men who have been legally deferred.

If such a system were in effect, many individuals would have six or seven buttons to wear, and these individuals could walk down the street with head erect and with the consciousness in their hearts that "I have tried to help but have been turned down. I did my best."

I sincerely hope that Bilbo or some other senator or some Congressman who reads this will prepare a law, if such is necssary, to carry these suggestions into practice.

Vote Before You Leave, Boys

Thirty odd young white men, most of whom are eligible to vote in the election next Tuesday, will leave Grenada for service in the army Monday.

Most of you have registered. By virtue of a law, first advocated by the GCW and later put thru the legislature by Senator Winter, permits you to vote without the payment of poll taxes.

You are therefore urged to exercise your privilege by going to the office of the Circuit Clerk and make out your ballot before you leave for camp.

For whom you vote is none of my business. My present business is to urge you to vote.

Be represented in the rotogravure supplement of the GCW to be issued in about ten weeks.

Two Fires At The Same Time

As I returned from the big fire at the Chamberlain house last Thursday, at least four ladies said, "Well, I guess they will listen to you now and get some more fire equipment."

No, dear ladies, they will wait until we have TWO big fires at the SAME time.

It Will Happen Here

I have been doing a good deal of writing under the head, "IT CAN HAPPEN HERE." Now I am going to write of what WILL happen here:

Higher prices of food . . . cold houses, due to lack of forethought in ordering coal in the summertime . . meatless days . . . restrictions on sale of gasoline . . . travel by bus and train restricted to those on important business . . . drafting boys 18-20 . . . repairs for farm implements harder to get, and no new tools . . . abolishment of the county agent's office . . . rationing of bread . . . the return to the roads of the old "slides," as wagons and buggies cannot be bought . . . a nearer approach to God for help . . . crepe hung from many door knobs . . . flag-draped caskets coming back . . . widows . . . orphans . . . smaller newspapers . . . inflation, if we are not careful . . . higher taxes . . . etc. . . . etc.

These things WILL happen because our representatives in Washington preferred to take the easy way.

Save Mabel

Mabel, my old lady, is a very valuable citizen of Grenada, as well as being the finest wife and mother in the world.

I want to save her as much worry and trouble as possible. I give her enough trouble and worry, which is a husband's privilege.

She has not eaten an uninterrupted meal in several months. The telephone, with some desperate person seeking non-existing apartments or rooms, is ringing practically all of the time. She very cordially and very graciously and patiently gives the desperate person all the information—which is precious little—that she has. She has pried open many reluctant doors to permit the addition of roomers, and she has done this most often without pay. She is good natured and does not press her claims for a commission. She has done more than any three people in Grenada to "place" camp employees in the homes of Grenada.

At this stage of the game, THERE ARE NO MORE ROOMS, known to her, in Grenada. Therefore, I humbly and respectfully request that her time be not taken up with repeating the stereotyped answer, "I am sorry, I have nothing."

Save Mabel.

Land, The Best Investment

Unless drastic masures are taken to impose ceiling prices on ALL things and ALL services, inflation will surely come. The administration seems reluctant to monkey with labor and with farmers, not because they and their prices and wages should not be regulated, but because there are SO MANY of them.

I do not believe that the administration has the courage, or if it has the courage, it will not receive the support sufficient to put a ceiling on wages or a ceiling on agricultural products.

Unless drastic and IMMEDIATE measures are taken, this country is soon to be in the midst of uncontrolled inflation, with all of the evils attendant upon a condition. Money will not be worth anything. A dollar will not buy a pinch of Garrett snuff. The income that ordinarily kept a family in comfort will not buy a decent meal. Those who live "on paper", that is on interest from bonds, mortgages, annuities, etc., will be wiped out. Only those who have "things," bales of cotton, stocks of merchandise, standing timber, and, last but most important of all, LAND, will be in a hell of a mess.

Storms come and wreck all buildings, but the land remains. Flood comes and ruin all crops, but the land remains. Prices rise and fall, empires and kingdoms have their brief tenure of power, but land stays put. IT IS THERE WHEN YOU GET BACK.

If I had plenty of money, I would invest some of it in stocks and bonds, keep some of it, and put SOME of it in land. In such circumstances, I would have SOMETHING, whatever happened. If the land market plummeted downward, I would have some money; if inflation came and money became valueless, I would have some land.

Buy some land, if you can.

Mississippians Show Their Resentment

The people of the 4th Congressional District voted Mr. Ford out of Congress, and the people of the State barely gave Senator Doxey enough votes to place him in a poor second position in the run-off, not because these gentlemen were personally obnoxious to so great a number of people but because the people took that method—the only method available to them—of showing their displeasure at the do-nothing, politics-first attitude of the Congress.

The politics-first idea that seems to have characterized the thinking and efforts of members of Congress and Senate has brought this proud nation almost to the very brink of national disaster. The flag-waving, jumbo bumble politicians at Washington had taught us, the common people, that America was the mightiest nation on earth and that the Japanese were pygmies; and that, if Japan dared attack us, we would wipe them off the face of the earth in a few days. We, the common people, believed those who should have known. We, the common people, had no means of knowing the true "state of the Union." We, the common people, were rudely awakened from the sleep, to which we had been lulled by the flag-waving politicians, when Pearl Harbor and a large number of our capital ships were ruined or destroyed. Those who did not wake up when the bombs fell on Pearl Harbor were aroused when the Philippines were captured after an inadequate force, illprepared, fought the most heroic fight ever written in American history.

The two gentlemen referred to in the first paragraph are hale fellows well met; they are very friendly and amiable; there is nothing to be said of their personal character or honesty; but they were part and parcel of the bunch that slept while our enemies were preparing destruction for us.

And ahose, then, are the reasons why the people of the 4th Congressional District have secured a NEW DEAL and why it is highly probable that the people of the entire state will demand a NEW DEAL on September 15.

Service Plus

Last Thursday afternoon, just before we had completed correcting the proofs of matter on the front and back pages of the paper, a vital part (EVERY part is a vital part) of our Linotype broke. (And, by the way, that breakdown accounts for a number of typographical errors on those two pages.)

Friday morning a telegram was sent to the Linotype company in Brooklyn, New York, ordering the replacement part. We instructed the company to send the part by air mail. Right after noon Saturday the package containing the replacement part was in our office. Thirty hours after we sent the order, the replacement part had arrived from Brooklyn.

If that's not service, we would like to see an example of SERVICE.

You Had Better Register

Many people went to the polls on election day and could not vote because they had not registered on the NEW registration books of the county. Most of the people had proper poll tax receipts. Most of these people had recatedly read in the GCW and had heard by word of mouth that they would have to register by July 1, 1942 in order to vote. Each of them no doubt, INTENDED to register, but neglected to do so.

Do not be caught in that trap again. Do not be caught short in the "big" election in 1943.

REGISTER THE VERY NEXT TIME YOU ARE AT THE COURT HOUSE.

Investigate Rumors

Vicious rumors, often started by enemy agents and spread and enlarged by innocent gossipers, are worth more to Hitler than 100,000 trained troops. Vicious rumors promote racial discord. Vicious rumors, often appearing at unexpected places and often ingeniously designed tend to undermine confidence in our form of government.

Grenada should have a Rumor Clearing House where people who hear tales affecting the war and the war effort can report the things heard, and there be investigated and analyzed.

No more logical man than our City Marshal, Mr. W. W. Odom, occurs to me at this time. Suppose you tell Mr. Odom what you hear, when you heard it and from whom.

Let's squelch rumors as we would incendiary bombs.

Me and the USA.

AUXILIARIES

All Saints Episcopal Auxiliary met in the home of Mrs. William Ames on Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mrs. W. W. Whitaker presided; Mrs. Sax Weir gave devotional and Mrs. W. J. Sherrer, secretary and Mrs. E. R. Burkhalter, gave their reports.

Miss Bobbie Doak gave a most interesting account of her stay at Swanee this summer, and a report of the splendid work being done by the church people in the Synod. Two young girls of the Y. P. S. L. gave interesting reports on their Church Camp attended at Camp Clarke near Meridian this summer, Margaret Ann McCorkle spoke first and was followed by Julia Marie Guidry. Both of these young ladies were enthusiastic about the young people's work and are reorganizing the local Y. P. S. L. this month. All department books were reviewed and the Auxiliary programs for the winter needs every worker in the Parish to help carry on. Those who were not present please plan to attend the next Auxiliary meeting. Mrs. Ames served delicious orange juice and cake at the close of the meeting.

W. M. S.

On Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock the Woman's Missionary Union met at the Baptist Church for a Royal Service program.

This well attended meeting was presided over by the President, Mrs. Joseph P. Thomas. On the program were Mesdames George Criss, F. A. Smith, E. Lockett and the Rev. G. E. Wilcox.

METHODIST W. S. OF C. S.

Meeting at the Church Monday afternoon the Woman's Society of Christian Service held a business meeting with Mrs. B. H. Herring presiding and led the devotional. Present were two young negro girls, Henry Pearson and Lou Bertha Duncan, who will be attended, as Grenada delegates, the Methodist Training School for Negroes at Holly Springs. They gave good reports of the work being done in the school and impressed their white friends with their sincerity of purpose in Auxiliary work, and their appreciation to the Grenada W. S. of C. S. for aiding them financially making it possible for them to attend the school.

Mrs. Ida Campbell dismissed the group by saying the benediction.

Mrs. W. A. Pittman has recently returned from a visit with her son, Major Pittman at Maxwell Field, Ala.

John Ed Carpenter, one of Uncle Sam's best men is visiting kin folks in Grenada.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ray spent a few days last week with their son and daughter, Sgt. and Mrs. H. J. Ray, Jr. at Camp Beauregard, La.

FRIDAY BRIDGE CLUB

On Friday of last week, members of the Friday Bridge Club met in the lovely home of Mrs. C. C. Cathey. Two tables were placed in the living room for the games, and all of the guests were members, except Mrs. C. S. Liles, who was graciously included as a guest for the afternoon. At intermission the hostess served a delicious salad course with iced Coca-Cola.

Mrs. Opley Lilly received a delightful gift as high score prize.

TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB

Gracious hospitality was the keynote of the Bridge Club meeting Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Hubert Calhoun entertained club members at her handsome home on Main Street. As the guests arrived they were seated on the wide porch and here iced Coca-Colas were served. Games were enjoyed in the spacious dining room, and at the conclusion of the games Mrs. Calhoun served a delectable salad in lettuce cups with wafers.

Mrs. Whyte Whitaker was the only non member guest present.

Grenadians to attend the opening of the Soldiers' Reception at Clarksdale, and many social affirs staged in private homes included Misses Eloise Watkins, Mary Elizabeth McNeill and May Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. George Myers visited Mr. Meyers' mother in Little Rock the last week-end. Mrs. Cliff Hamby accompanied them to Memphis where he visited relatives until Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Webber and little daughter, of Memphis, visited their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. White and family the past week-end and part of this week.

Benton Keeton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Keeton left Tuesday night for Waco, Texas, to enter Baylor University. The GCW will keep Benton informed of current events in Grenada.

Miss Carolyn Whitaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Whitaker, left on No. 3 Wednesday for Vicksburg to enter All Saints Episcopal College for 1942-43 session.

Lt. James Houston, of Fort Eustis, Va., is at home for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Ethel Thiel. He will be here until Friday.

Mrs. Ben Brown visited her son, Mr. D. B. Brown, Jr., and family in Memphis this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schmitz, of Baltimore, Md. are visiting their uncle, Mr. A. C. Simpson and family this week at their home in Scobey.

Mrs. T. H. Meek has returned home from Hendersonville, N. C. where she enjoyed six weeks stay. Mr. Meek drove to Hendersonville last week-end to bring her home. Griffis Meek, who is employed in a defense work project at Baton Rouge, La. came home last Thursday because of illnesss, and is to remain at home with his parents for a while. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Seen, Heard and Told By The Editor

From the 22nd of August until Sunday, September 6, we added 24 new subscribers to our list. That's a dozen a week. The Circulation Manager of the Daily Tribune would be fired if he could not show greater results, but it is fairly good for a small country weekly newspaper, especially when it is stated that all 25 of them were "walk-in" subscribers. We have never put on a subscription campaign, and never expect to. These 24 persons came in because they wanted it is newspaper, not because some pretty gal was trying to get a scholarship.

Among the new ones was S. C. Hardiman, a respected colored man on Route 1. Some of the best and most loyal friends I have are Negroes. I respect their rights and they respect mine. I have dealt with hundreds of them, tenants and subscribers, and I have yet to experience any misunderstanding.

There would be no "race question" if the question were not kept alive by self seekers, mostly in the North. Good Negroes and good white people NEVER have any trouble.

I am sick and tired of ill-informed people talking about the coming of soldiers as they talk of the coming of some plague. These soldiers will keep YOU and ME free. When you speak ill of soldiers you cast reflections upon almost every home in America.

Ain't they sweet.

We are still printing personal stationery for soldiers, 100 printed sheets and 100 printed envelopes for $2.00; 200 each for $3.00.

At a later date, Mr. Meyers, who is helping us on the rotogravure supplement for the GCW will contact local firms. At the present time he is devoting his attention to the contractors and material supplies at the camp. If you do not want to pay the cost of being represented in the rotogravure section, you can be represented in the black and white part of the issue which we will publish here. EVERYBODY should be represented one way or another, as the issue promises to be the BIGGEST issue of a newspaper ever coming from a newspaper office in Grenada.

It is a pleasure to record the fact that Mrs. B. L. Taylor, of Grenada, sent in very promptly and renewed her subscription. This is her receipt and, with it, our thanks.

August—the damnest month in the year—having passed into history, our business has picked up a good deal. Horn and Greenfield were kept out of devilment all during last Friday and Saturday. Do it again. Save sinners to salvation.

Sell Jones, son of my favorite lady in the Indian Territory, has advised his mother by cable that he arrived safely in England.

Mrs. P. B. McWhorter got tired of hearing folks say, "Did you see what Whyte Whitaker said," and subscribed in her own right. Welcome, sister.

Wonder if they do any printing at the camp?

Several ladies of the evening just passed by. They look sort of travel worn and moth-eaten.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL LEADS in WAR DRIVE

PRIZED among members of the Illinois Central family is the following telegram from Donald M. Nelson, chairman of the War Production Board:

"Congratulations to the men of the Illinois Central Railroad on being the first representatives of a major railroad to embrace the War Production Drive by establishment of a labor-management committee of sixteen members to be known as the Employes' War Production Drive General Suggestion Committee.

"You are giving your support to an effort that now embraces over three million war workers in some 1,300 corporations and plants in all forms of war production.

"War-time transportation such as your railroad can and must service is an absolute essential to victory."

Mr. Nelson's telegram came in response to the announcement that, effective August 20, the Employes' Suggestion System of the Illinois Central would line up in the national War Production Drive according to a plan recommended to industries generally by the War Production Board.

That meant giving particular emphasis to ideas that will expedite war production by increasing the general effectiveness of the Illinois Central in the war effort. It also meant having equal representation of labor and management on the committees handling the suggestion system.

Responding patriotically to the invitation, members of the Illinois Central General Chairmen's Association nominated eight of their number to serve on the general committee, and our department heads selected eight management representatives. The division and shops committees will likewise be organized with equal representation of labor and management.

We of the Illinois Central are enthusiastic over these changes. We truly believe they promise much for the War Production Drive, the Employes' Suggestion System and the Illinois Central family as a whole—which is just another way of saying the entire public service, both in war and in peace, to which this railroad is dedicated.

BETZ-BRATTON

A longed for leave to a soldier of the Army Force, granted at the last minute, is responsible for the unannounced wedding this evening of Miss Dorothy Jane Bratton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Bratton of 685 Eva, to Corp. Ernest Linwood Betz, son of Mrs. E. L. Betz and the late Mr. Betz of Grenad, Miss.

Miss Bratton and Corporal Betz had planned to be married next month, but when the last minute leave was granted, the bride changed her plans and there will still be a ceremony at six o'clock this evening at the Evergreen Presbyterian Church. The Rev. C. D. Patterson will officiate.

Soft candlelight gleaming on tall floor baskets of Picardy gladioli among palms and ferns will form the setting for the ceremony. A program of nuptial music will be given by Mrs. J. Adelbert Wilbee organist.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a wedding gown of silk marquisette fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. Her veil of illusion will be caught with tiny orange blossoms and she will carry a small white Bible with a bouquet of tuberoses centered by a white orchid.

Miss Ruth Gridge of Lexington, Miss., will be her maid of honor and only attendant. She will wear a model of peach chiffon and carry an arm bouquet of Picardy gladioli.

C. Fletcher Klinke, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, will be best man, and C. Red Hughes and W. B. Klinke, Jr., will be ushers.

Following the ceremony, the couple will leave for a short wedding trip.

The bride was graduated from Tallulah High School in Tallulah, La., two years ago and a short time later moved to Memphis with her family, she attended Southwestern and Louisiana State University.

Corporal Betz attended Grenada High School, was employed by DuPont and later attended the Whitehaven Defense School before enlisting in the Air Force. He is now stationed at Stinson Field in San Antonio, Texas, where the couple will live.

They will be at home at 332 McKinley Street, San Antonio, Texas.

The above is from the Commercial Appeal of August 31, 1942.

NOTICE

The Woman's Club will meet Thursday night, Sept. 17. They relinquished their regular meeting time on Sept. 10 that their members might attend the P. T. A. Reception for new teachers.

Mrs. Pearl Davis, of Chicago, is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. D. Collins this week.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt appreciation for the many manifestations of friendship and helpfulness by so large a number of friends where our husband and father passed away. May God bless each of you.

Sincerely,
Mrs. W. B. Johnson
and Family.
